The Highlands of Scotland, wide-open spaces and empty roads,

Thank you for downloading this Information Brochure, it will give you an idea of what can be put together for your holiday with us here in the Highlands, and you won't even have to look at a map. Our excursions into the Highlands of Scotland, include the Great Glen, the Cairngorms and the West Coast. We go in search of mountain glens, empty roads, engage in Monster watching, and pursue the ever-elusive free roaming haggis and always surrounded by some of Europe's most ancient and stunning landscapes!

There has been a noticeable increase in the numbers of motorcyclists touring around the Highlands, and the numbers are continuing to rise each year. The service we offer is providing pre-booked accommodation, and if necessary arrange motorcycle hire, for motorcyclists visiting the Highlands of Scotland either individually, or as a club or group. This includes a 3 to 4-night base at the type of accommodation you request, and 2 or 3 days touring.

To travel this far and to keep on going is a great adventure but there is the continual worry of "where are we staying tonight then?"

So why not stay around the Highlands for a while

With us you can leave all of your worries, bags, rucksacks, panniers, and bungee straps behind, allowing you to stay, relax, and enjoy your Holiday!

There are no Minimum numbers, we go out if it's only you or a few

When and Where Do We Go?

We suggest you time your arrival, for those who hired as well, to arrive in Inverness sometime after lunch on Mondays, there we will meet you and take you to your accommodation to settle in and to freshen up. Remember we can always help you with suggested places to stop over en-route to make it even easier

An Example Itinerary

SUNDAY-optional extra en-route accommodation, Coaching Inn, PERTH-SHIRE, or at the Guest House in Inverness

MONDAY MORNING-If you are already here, maybe a spot of Monster watching on a cruise down Loch Ness.

MONDAY AFTERNOONS- We meet you at Tesco's, Inverness, and then off to the accommodation to settle in.

MONDAY EVENING – Optional Run down to Drumnadrochit passing Loch-Ness along the way to a Fiddlers Café Bar Jacobite Queen

TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY - We set out every day in a different direction, run out and about the Highlands, off to remote mountain passes, to see Eagles fly, and to see the Salmon leap, riding through the most beautiful Glens, on the best roads in Europe, ever watching to see what is around today. We also take in a visit to a Castle with a falconry display included or sometimes the funicular railway at Aviemore, and have even had picnics on the beach!

FRIDAY- Farewells and Good -byes. We can help with all your en-route and departure accommodation (pre-booked) so you know where you are staying and can plan your journey to suit your own personal needs. We can also incorporate Cruises on Loch Ness and the Caledonian Canal on the Jacobite Queen
